

Final Presentation Guidelines

When

Starting starting next class, you'll be picked at random to present.

In other words, you do not know if you are going next week or the week after.

Length

- 5 minutes
- 100% firm - You will stop at 5 minutes. If you say one word after, you'll lose points.

Audio / Visual

- A / V problems double count against you:
 1. Professionalism
 2. Taken out of your time
- Suggested:
 - Use Brian's laptop
 - Presentation should be public on Google Drive

As An Audience

All computers will be closed the entire time

You'll fill out feedback forms to help your classmate

Failure to comply will negatively impact your professionalism grade

Grades

1. Evaluation based on the rubric

2. Your reflection:

1. Your own perception

2. Rubric

3. Peer feedback

Your Reflection

1. At most 1 page
2. Not an external written communication
 1. Strive for clarity
 2. Don't over polish
3. Due 2018-10-12 at 5pm!
